See it all—uproarious and uncut—as player-coach Paul Newman lies, bullies and badmouths his minor league hockey team to fiscal health. His big discovery that brawls bring crowds turns the tide in this funny, hard-nosed and lecherous film from George Roy Hill. Tough, entertaining, it's full-fledged, knock-down Newman and the boys . . . and girls. Very rough sports violence and language. (R-2:02) April 30

BO SVENSON • CYBILL SHEPHERD in "SPECIAL DELIVERY"

Fast, funny and full of action! A cool half-million in bank loot is stashed in a mailbox as ex-marine Bo Svenson (Final Chapter—Walking Tall) makes a frantic getaway. Cybill Shepherd (Taxi Driver, The Last Picture Show) makes Bo her beau and off they go—through wind, sleet and snow. Great entertainment. Plenty of action mixed with comedy. Brief nudity, adult language. (PG-1:39) April 28

MICHAEL CAINE in "PULP"

Michael Caine and Mickey Rooney are superb in this high-spirited spoof of the detective genre. Seedy pulp-writer Caine is hired by ex-film-star hood Rooney to ghost-write his outrageous and barely printable autobiography. Violence, adult language. (PG-1:36) April 29
